
APPENDIX 4

‘Our Stories’- videos

Tamaki Drive ‘Protecting our place’: Videos (6)

Protecting our ocean	Ian Ferguson (Ferg’s Kayaks) and Phil McGowan (Kelly Tarlton’s) explain environmental initiatives to protect and preserve the natural resources of Okahu Bay. http://youtu.be/N66k1mlpdvE	Ian Ferguson Fergs Kayaks Phil Mcgowan Kelly Tarltons
Okahu Bay	Fun on the water with Ian Ferguson. Also features the increasing presence of the Maori Waka and the planned Waka centre for Tamaki Drive. http://youtu.be/1nYhpmbN6dk	Ian Ferguson Fergs Kayaks
Love Mission Bay	Megan explains why Mission Bay is a great place to visit including the different variety of ethnic restaurants, family fun activities and the much loved Berkley theatre. http://youtu.be/iYEKTyEFs4Y	Megan Burgess Mission Bay Business Association
New Zealand Flying School	The story of the Walsh brothers some of the first aviation pioneers of New Zealand. http://youtu.be/CrCdzbzHzCk	NZTRI
Protecting our land	A tour of Achilles Point and an overview of St Heliers. Graham describes the significance of Achilles Point and recalls his own memories of the famous battle in WWII. http://youtu.be/f-7idxpyqjo	Graham Burgess WW2 Vetran RSA Member
Protecting the village	Sally Hughes tells how unique the seaside village of St Heliers is and explains what the locals are doing to protect its character. http://youtu.be/5gTk5dPVNrg	Sally Hughes Chairperson Save Our St Helliers

Remuera 'Once upon a time': Videos (8)

Title	Description	Contacts
Family Fun	Audrey explains what a fantastic place Little Rangitoto Reserve is for the family and how much fun kids can have there. http://youtu.be/pOUtTXLzE14	Audrey Williams Plunket and local Mum
Remuera at night	The vibe of Remuera while dining at night. http://youtu.be/6pwg8_WsdMw	Laura Carr Remuera Business Association
Captain Hobson	Morgan reads a quote from 'Poenamo' (book) which tells what Captain Hobson said when he first climbed Mount Hobson. http://youtu.be/9Ulu577XZv0	Morgan Bosthwick Remuera Library
Orakei Basin - Walks and Birds	Sue tells about how beautiful Orakei Basin is to walk around and how many species of native birds are present in the local area. http://youtu.be/5mv8AK-Wheg	Sue Jackson, Head Librarian and Resident
Heritage Remuera	Nick follows the Heritage trail and talks about the iconic heritage buildings and key characteristics of the place. http://youtu.be/GJoMK7b262s
Now and Then	Long-time resident Anabelle tells about the changes that have occurred in Remuera over the last 50 years. She describes the trams and explains the ongoing popularity of some of the iconic shops. http://youtu.be/l6Fkl7pVvms	Anabelle Valentine Remuera Residents Association
Five generations under one roof	Helen recalls notable stories that span over five generations of living in Remuera with her grandmother's story of being a piano teacher for 80 years	Helen Mihajlovic Remuera local mum and resident

	https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=bR6lt5gW5Uk&feature=youtu.be
Five generations under one roof - Remuera Primary School 1919	Helen shows us pictures of her grandmother at Remuera Primary School celebrating the end of world war one in 1919 http://youtu.be/h9kl_6BRAR0	Helen Mihajlovic Remuera mum and resident

Ellerslie ‘Hoofprints and heritage’: Videos (5)

Title	Description	Contacts
Horses and hoofprints	Lynne recalls some of her fond childhood memories of how growing up in Ellerslie centred on the horse riding culture and the hype of race day. http://youtu.be/wsAkXFXokQ	Lynne Towner – childhood memories from growing up in Ellerslie
Papatuanuku ki Taurangi Garden Community Garden	Sisters of Mercy tell us about their community organic garden, the philosophy behind it and their bi-cultural mission. Visitors and volunteers are welcome! http://youtu.be/Xw6KMbLWnZA	Bridget and Teresa Sisters of Mercy
Ellerslie: Bridge of Memories	Sally speaks about the iconic Bridge of Memories and its significance to Ellerslie. http://youtu.be/dzkZKJ9d5hg	Sally Eustace Ellerslie Business Association
Ellerslie: Community Spirit	Sally recalls how a community clean-up prior to the Rugby World Cup spiralled into a major community event and its on going legacy. http://youtu.be/WOtXkJYIBg	Sally Eustace Ellerslie Business Association
Ellerslie Village- Past and Present	Edgar reminiscences how Ellerslie has changed over the past three decades, from a predominantly horse/ lifestyle centred village to a lively desirable suburb where people ‘can be themselves’. http://youtu.be/EbtR4Wt9vR8	Edgar Henson Residents and ratepayers Association and long term Resident

For further information about the podcasts and videos, please contact Research Project Manager:

Carolyn Deuchar carolyn.deuchar@aut.ac.nz

APPENDIX 4

‘Our Stories’- videos

Tamaki Drive ‘Protecting our place’: Videos (6)

Protecting our ocean	Ian Ferguson (Ferg’s Kayaks) and Phil McGowan (Kelly Tarlton’s) explain environmental initiatives to protect and preserve the natural resources of Okahu Bay. http://youtu.be/N66k1mlpdvE	Ian Ferguson Fergs Kayaks Phil Mcgowan Kelly Tarltons
Okahu Bay	Fun on the water with Ian Ferguson. Also features the increasing presence of the Maori Waka and the planned Waka centre for Tamaki Drive. http://youtu.be/1nYhpmbN6dk	Ian Ferguson Fergs Kayaks
Love Mission Bay	Megan explains why Mission Bay is a great place to visit including the different variety of ethnic restaurants, family fun activities and the much loved Berkley theatre. http://youtu.be/iYEKTyEFs4Y	Megan Burgess Mission Bay Business Association
New Zealand Flying School	The story of the Walsh brothers some of the first aviation pioneers of New Zealand. http://youtu.be/CrCdzbzHzCk	NZTRI
Protecting our land	A tour of Achilles Point and an overview of St Heliers. Graham describes the significance of Achilles Point and recalls his own memories of the famous battle in WWII. http://youtu.be/f-7idxpyqjo	Graham Burgess WW2 Vetran RSA Member
Protecting the village	Sally Hughes tells how unique the seaside village of St Heliers is and explains what the locals are doing to protect its character. http://youtu.be/5gTk5dPVNrg	Sally Hughes Chairperson Save Our St Helliers

Remuera 'Once upon a time': Videos (8)

Title	Description	Contacts
Family Fun	Audrey explains what a fantastic place Little Rangitoto Reserve is for the family and how much fun kids can have there. http://youtu.be/pOUtTXLzE14	Audrey Williams Plunket and local Mum
Remuera at night	The vibe of Remuera while dining at night. http://youtu.be/6pwg8_WsdMw	Laura Carr Remuera Business Association
Captain Hobson	Morgan reads a quote from 'Poenamo' (book) which tells what Captain Hobson said when he first climbed Mount Hobson. http://youtu.be/9Ulu577XZv0	Morgan Bosthwick Remuera Library
Orakei Basin - Walks and Birds	Sue tells about how beautiful Orakei Basin is to walk around and how many species of native birds are present in the local area. http://youtu.be/5mv8AK-Wheg	Sue Jackson, Head Librarian and Resident
Heritage Remuera	Nick follows the Heritage trail and talks about the iconic heritage buildings and key characteristics of the place. http://youtu.be/GJoMK7b262s
Now and Then	Long-time resident Anabelle tells about the changes that have occurred in Remuera over the last 50 years. She describes the trams and explains the ongoing popularity of some of the iconic shops. http://youtu.be/l6Fkl7pVvms	Anabelle Valentine Remuera Residents Association
Five generations under one roof	Helen recalls notable stories that span over five generations of living in Remuera with her grandmother's story of being a piano teacher for 80 years	Helen Mihajlovic Remuera local mum and resident

	http://youtu.be/dbpDjMGJrwg
Five generations under one roof - Remuera Primary School 1919	Helen shows us pictures of her grandmother at Remuera Primary School celebrating the end of world war one in 1919 http://youtu.be/h9kl_6BRAR0	Helen Mihajlovic Remuera mum and resident

Ellerslie ‘Hoofprints and heritage’: Videos (5)

Title	Description	Contacts
Horses and hoofprints	Lynne recalls some of her fond childhood memories of how growing up in Ellerslie centred on the horse riding culture and the hype of race day. http://youtu.be/wsAkXFXokQ	Lynne Towner – childhood memories from growing up in Ellerslie
Papatuanuku ki Taurangi Garden Community Garden	Sisters of Mercy tell us about their community organic garden, the philosophy behind it and their bi-cultural mission. Visitors and volunteers are welcome! http://youtu.be/Xw6KMbLWnZA	Bridget and Teresa Sisters of Mercy
Ellerslie: Bridge of Memories	Sally speaks about the iconic Bridge of Memories and its significance to Ellerslie. http://youtu.be/dzkZKJ9d5hg	Sally Eustace Ellerslie Business Association
Ellerslie: Community Spirit	Sally recalls how a community clean-up prior to the Rugby World Cup spiralled into a major community event and its on going legacy. http://youtu.be/WOtXkJYIBg	Sally Eustace Ellerslie Business Association
Ellerslie Village- Past and Present	Edgar reminiscences how Ellerslie has changed over the past three decades, from a predominantly horse/ lifestyle centred village to a lively desirable suburb where people ‘can be themselves’. http://youtu.be/EbtR4Wt9vR8	Edgar Henson Residents and ratepayers Association and long term Resident

For further information about the podcasts and videos, please contact Research Project Manager:

Carolyn Deuchar carolyn.deuchar@aut.ac.nz

APPENDIX 4

‘Our Stories’- videos

Tamaki Drive ‘Protecting our place’: Videos (6)

Protecting our ocean	Ian Ferguson (Ferg’s Kayaks) and Phil McGowan (Kelly Tarlton’s) explain environmental initiatives to protect and preserve the natural resources of Okahu Bay. http://youtu.be/N66k1mlpdvE	Ian Ferguson Fergs Kayaks Phil Mcgowan Kelly Tarltons
Okahu Bay	Fun on the water with Ian Ferguson. Also features the increasing presence of the Maori Waka and the planned Waka centre for Tamaki Drive. http://youtu.be/1nYhpmbN6dk	Ian Ferguson Fergs Kayaks
Love Mission Bay	Megan explains why Mission Bay is a great place to visit including the different variety of ethnic restaurants, family fun activities and the much loved Berkley theatre. http://youtu.be/iYEKTyEFs4Y	Megan Burgess Mission Bay Business Association
New Zealand Flying School	The story of the Walsh brothers some of the first aviation pioneers of New Zealand. http://youtu.be/CrCdzbzHzCk	NZTRI
Protecting our land	A tour of Achilles Point and an overview of St Heliers. Graham describes the significance of Achilles Point and recalls his own memories of the famous battle in WWII. http://youtu.be/f-7idxpyqjo	Graham Burgess WW2 Vetran RSA Member
Protecting the village	Sally Hughes tells how unique the seaside village of St Heliers is and explains what the locals are doing to protect its character. http://youtu.be/5gTk5dPVNrg	Sally Hughes Chairperson Save Our St Helliers

Remuera 'Once upon a time': Videos (8)

Title	Description	Contacts
Family Fun	Audrey explains what a fantastic place Little Rangitoto Reserve is for the family and how much fun kids can have there. http://youtu.be/pOUtTXLzE14	Audrey Williams Plunket and local Mum
Remuera at night	The vibe of Remuera while dining at night. http://youtu.be/6pwg8_WsdMw	Laura Carr Remuera Business Association
Captain Hobson	Morgan reads a quote from 'Poenamo' (book) which tells what Captain Hobson said when he first climbed Mount Hobson. http://youtu.be/9Ulu577XZv0	Morgan Bosthwick Remuera Library
Orakei Basin - Walks and Birds	Sue tells about how beautiful Orakei Basin is to walk around and how many species of native birds are present in the local area. http://youtu.be/5mv8AK-Wheg	Sue Jackson, Head Librarian and Resident
Heritage Remuera	Nick follows the Heritage trail and talks about the iconic heritage buildings and key characteristics of the place. http://youtu.be/GJoMK7b262s
Now and Then	Long-time resident Anabelle tells about the changes that have occurred in Remuera over the last 50 years. She describes the trams and explains the ongoing popularity of some of the iconic shops. http://youtu.be/l6Fkl7pVvms	Anabelle Valentine Remuera Residents Association
Five generations under one roof	Helen recalls notable stories that span over five generations of living in Remuera with her grandmother's story of being a piano teacher for 80 years	Helen Mihajlovic Remuera local mum and resident

	http://youtu.be/dbpDjMGJrwg
Five generations under one roof - Remuera Primary School 1919	Helen shows us pictures of her grandmother at Remuera Primary School celebrating the end of world war one in 1919 http://youtu.be/h9kl_6BRAR0	Helen Mihajlovic Remuera mum and resident

Ellerslie ‘Hoofprints and heritage’: Videos (5)

Title	Description	Contacts
Horses and hoofprints	Lynne recalls some of her fond childhood memories of how growing up in Ellerslie centred on the horse riding culture and the hype of race day. http://youtu.be/wsAkXFXokQ	Lynne Towner – childhood memories from growing up in Ellerslie
Papatuanuku ki Taurangi Garden Community Garden	Sisters of Mercy tell us about their community organic garden, the philosophy behind it and their bi-cultural mission. Visitors and volunteers are welcome! http://youtu.be/Xw6KMbLWnZA	Bridget and Teresa Sisters of Mercy
Ellerslie: Bridge of Memories	Sally speaks about the iconic Bridge of Memories and its significance to Ellerslie. http://youtu.be/dzkZKJ9d5hg	Sally Eustace Ellerslie Business Association
Ellerslie: Community Spirit	Sally recalls how a community clean-up prior to the Rugby World Cup spiralled into a major community event and its on going legacy. http://youtu.be/WOtXkJYIBg	Sally Eustace Ellerslie Business Association
Ellerslie Village- Past and Present	Edgar reminiscences how Ellerslie has changed over the past three decades, from a predominantly horse/ lifestyle centred village to a lively desirable suburb where people ‘can be themselves’. http://youtu.be/EbtR4Wt9vR8	Edgar Henson Residents and ratepayers Association and long term Resident

For further information about the podcasts and videos, please contact Research Project Manager:

Carolyn Deuchar carolyn.deuchar@aut.ac.nz